CB TOUR Index – Division Eligibility & Handicap System

What is the CB TOUR Index?

The CB TOUR Index is a performance-based rating system inspired by the GHIN model in golf.

It uses a bowler's top 21 differentials from their most recent 30 games (or tiered formula if fewer than 30) to calculate an index reflecting skill level, regardless of lane pattern difficulty or center conditions.

Differential Formula:

$$\text{Differential} = (\text{Score} - \text{Field Average})$$

Divisions:

- Open Division
- Under Division
  - Eligibility:
    - CB TOUR Index of 2.9 or lower, or
    - USBC Standard Average of 199 or lower

Average Determination:

- If a bowler has at least 15 games on the CB TOUR, their Index determines division eligibility.
- If no CB TOUR Index, the highest USBC Standard Composite average from 2024–2025 will be used.

CB TOUR Index Placeholder Average (for Handicap Only):

For handicap brackets and Challenge Series, we assign a placeholder average based on a bowler's Index. Handicap = 75% of the difference between 220 and the placeholder average.
